The President announced that the next meeting would be public, to which the members of the Biological and Philosophical Societies were specially invited for the purpose of listening to the annual address of the President.

NINETIETH REGULAR MEETING, February 3, 1885.

In accordance with previous announcement the Society assembled in public session to listen to the annual address of the President, there being present on special invitation the members of the Biological and Philosophical Societies and other friends of the Society.

Dr. J. C. WELLING introduced to the audience President J. W. POWELL, who delivered an address entitled "FROM SAVAGERY TO BARBARISM."

At the close of the address, on motion of Mr. MASON, a vote of thanks to the speaker was unanimously passed.

The Secretary of the Council announced that the Saturday course of lectures under the auspices of the Anthropological and Biological Societies had been arranged, and that programmes of the first part of the course were ready for distribution.
